The first match of the year was in stark contrast to last year's blizzard. It was sunny and pleasant. It was also spectacular with the largest amount of entries in a single day in years. It was really nice to see some of the shooters of old and to welcome in a lot of new competitors.

For all of those who knocked down the center turkey during a "record entry" I have entered you in the book for the drawing at the end of the year. In future matches you may sign-in yourself. Looks like we will have a collection of names to pick from.

One last note, please fill out your cards completely and legibly as I had a bit of a time identifying some of you. In addition, there were a couple who I was unable to identify. I hate not being able to get your name in print.

Thanks to all who came out, I look forward to seeing you at any of the 2 upcoming matches:

April 25th, Sunday

May 23rd, Sunday

Feel Free to bring a friend!!!!!!
