ARTICLE II

Board of Directors

Section 1. The affairs of the Corporation shall be managed by its Directors. This includes such matters as making financial decisions as well as establishing Rules and Regulations for members. There shall be fifteen (15) Directors. The term of any member of the Board of Directors shall be for two (2) years.

Section 2. The membership of any Director shall be terminated by their death or written resignation. The Board of Directors may recommend termination, by a majority vote of the Board of Directors, of a Director for any cause deemed sufficient. This recommendation must be in writing, with a copy given to the Director in question.

Section 3. Any vacancy occurring in the Board of Directors shall be filled by election by the members at the first regular meeting following member notification, both in the corporation's newsletter and at a regular meeting. A majority vote of the members present at such meeting shall be sufficient to elect Directors.

Section 4. Any Board Director is allowed four (4) absences from meetings of the Board of Directors. After more than four absences in any calendar year, said Director shall automatically be terminated as a member of the Board of Directors, unless the absence(s) is (are) excused by a majority Board vote.

ARTICLE III

Meetings

Section 1. The Board of Directors shall meet monthly. The time and place to be selected by the Board of Directors. Such meetings shall be referred to as regular Board meetings. Special Board meetings may be called by order of the President, or by petitions signed by at least five (5) members of the Board of Directors. Reasonable notice of meetings shall be sent to all Directors and Officers by the Corporate Secretary. At any official meeting of the Board of Directors a majority of the Directors shall constitute a quorum.

Section 2. The Members shall meet at the time and date as determined by the Board of Directors to transact such business as may come before said meeting. Said meetings shall be referred to as regular monthly meetings. The March regular meeting, or as selected by the Board, will be the annual meeting. Special meetings may be called by the order of the President. A quorum shall consist of twenty (20) members or two-thirds (2/3) of the Membership, whichever is smaller.

Section 3. The President, or in their absence the First Vice President, or in their absence, the Second Vice President, or in their absence any Director chosen by a majority of those present at a meeting, shall call the meeting to order, and shall act as Chairperson of such meeting. The Corporate Secretary should be at all meetings of the Board of Directors or General Membership. In the absence of the Corporate Secretary, the Presiding Officer may appoint any member to act as Corporate Secretary of the meeting.

Section 4. Voting by members at regular meetings, and by Directors at Board meetings, must be done in person. Voting by proxy is therefore not permitted.

ARTICLE IV

Officers

Section 1. The General Officers of the Corporation shall be President, First Vice President, Second Vice President, Treasurer, Corporate Secretary and a Membership Secretary; each of whom shall be elected, along with other Directors, by the majority of members present at the regular December meeting of the Corporation. They will hold office until the next regular December meeting or until their successors are duly elected and installed. The President and Vice Presidents shall be chosen from the Board of Directors. Elections may be held later, per Board approval, in the event the regular December meeting cannot be held.

Section 2. Any vacancy occurring among the Officers shall be filled by election by the members at the first regular meeting following member notification, both in the corporation's newsletter and at a regular meeting. A majority vote of the members present at such meeting shall be sufficient to elect Officers. If a qualified applicant cannot be found, the Board of Directors will carry out the duties of the vacated position as long as necessary.

Section 3. Members holding the Offices of Corporate Secretary, Membership Secretary and Treasurer may not concurrently occupy an elected position on the Board of Directors. The office of President may not be held more than 2 consecutive terms by one person.

Section 4. Any Officer is allowed six (6) absences. After more than six absences per year, Board and regular Meetings combined, said Officer shall be automatically terminated from their office, unless the absence(s) is (are) excused by a majority Board vote.

Section 5. The principal duties and qualifications of the Officers shall be as follows:

- (a) The President shall preside at all regular and Board Meetings, preserve order, and enforce the By-laws of the League. They shall decide questions of order, subject to the appeal of the general Membership. The President shall have the deciding vote in case of a tie. The President shall countersign all orders, leases, and contracts worth more than $10,000 with the Treasurer or Corporate Secretary. The President shall appoint/approve the chairperson of all standing Board committees and form any other Board committees as may be necessary, with the approval of the Board of Directors. They shall be ex-officio member of all committees. - (e) The Membership Secretary shall receive all applications for membership, send all membership renewals, issue appropriate cards or certificates showing evidence of membership and maintain an up-to-date roster of members. They shall perform such duties as usually devolve upon such office.

ARTICLE V

Members

Section 1. Any person may be made a Member of the Corporation upon submission of a written application at a regular meeting. The application shall be approved by the majority of members present at the same regular meeting and immediately initiated. Each regular member in good standing shall have one vote on all matters submitted for vote of the membership. No junior, spousal or scholastic members shall have the right to vote.

Section 2. A member may be expelled for any cause deemed detrimental to the League and its aims. Expulsion will be by two-thirds (2/3) majority of the Board members present at a Board meeting.

Section 3. Those members who are 70 years old and having been a member for 25 years are eligible for dues and privileges as determined by the Board of Directors.

Section 4. The initiation fee for all membership categories will be established by the Board of Directors.

Section 5. Annual dues for all membership categories will be determined by the Board of Directors. A member may reduce their yearly dues by an amount established by the Board of Directors, by performing actual services on accredited club functions. The minimum number of hours required for such dues reductions will be set by the Board: Senior Citizens, 65 or older, Veterans and the physically handicapped are exempt from the service requirement for dues reduction. Volunteer hours and exempt classification as "over 65", "Veteran", or "handicapped" must be reached by December 31st of the year prior to renewal year.

Section 6. All regular memberships shall expire as of December 31st. Notice of dues shall be sent on or about January 15th of renewal year by the Membership Secretary. Payment of annual dues is to be made by last day of February of renewal year. Late fees, as established by the Board, will be assessed each month following February due date.

Section 7. All new memberships after the first day of November shall include the following year.

Section 8. Any member in good standing who must leave the area for any reason or who is called into the armed services or cannot use the facilities due to an extended serious medical condition may receive a withdrawal card, which would hold in abeyance the payment of dues and retain inactive membership for a period of up to five (5) years.

Section 9. If a junior member has been a member at least two (2) years, they may be admitted to the regular or scholastic membership without any additional initiation fee. Those transferred with less than two (2) years continuous membership shall be charged the difference between the regular or scholastic and junior initiation fee.

Section 10. The membership is to be confidential property of the Membership Secretary. Use within the League of the list must have the approval of the Board of Directors. The list is not to be used for any purpose outside of the league.

Section 11. There will be no initiation of new members at the December general meeting. No guests will be permitted at the general meeting in December. Members attending the December meeting, which is the election meeting, will be required to present at the door a current year's membership card before entering the meeting to receive a ballot. In the event the December general meeting cannot be held, elections will be a subsequent general meeting, as decided by the Board.

Section 12. Rules governing classes of members, being four (4) in number; Regular membership, Spousal membership, Junior membership, and Scholastic membership, shall be as defined by the League By-laws.

Section 13 Spousal membership: The spouse of a member may become a spousal member of the League with initiation fees, dues and privileges as determined by the Board of Directors with the approval of the membership. Qualification for spousal membership ceases should the regular membership lapse or be revoked.

Section 14. Scholastic membership: Full-time students between the ages of 18 & 23. They may become a Scholastic member of the League with initiation fees, dues and privileges as determined by the Board of Directors with the approval of the Membership. They must provide proof of their full-time student status to the Membership Secretary.

Committees

Section 1. The President shall appoint, with the advice of the Board, members to chair and sit on each active formal Board committee.

Section 2. The President may constitute such other committees as in their discretion as they deem necessary and/or proper. Committee chairpersons and members need not be members of the Board.

Section 3. Any members of a formal Board committee may be removed by the President in their discretion with the consent and approval of the Board.

Section 4. All rules and other actions of such committees shall conform to rules or action of the League. All formal Board committee actions are subject to approval and modification by the Board of Directors to make such actions conform to those of the League.

Section 5. There will be an annual, independent, third-party financial analysis of all of the financial affairs of the Corporation (the "Financial Analysis"). The findings of the Financial Analysis shall be reported to the Board of Directors upon its completion.

Section 6. The Financial Analysis shall be performed by a person or entity selected by the Board of Directors (the "Financial Analyst"). Any such person shall not be a Director or Officer of the Corporation or a relative of a Director or Officer. Any such entity shall not be owned, operated, or associated with any Director or Officer of the Corporation or any relative of a Director or Officer.

Section 7. The Finance Committee of the Corporation will consist of the President, the Treasurer, and any member of the Board of Directors who cares to participate. The Finance Committee will be in charge of reviewing all of the Corporation's financial affairs."

Section 8. All Chairpersons of leagues, matches, activities, and/or events are accountable to the Board of Directors and shall report to the Board annually. This includes activities involved, defined rules, and financials of the respective league, match, activity and/or event.

ARTICLE VII
